ELLISON SCHOLARS NEWS FOR ORGANISATIONS

Finding and Funding Top Global Talent

Dear Luis

The countdown is on for the Ellison Scholars programme! In an update to our earlier communications, we want your organisation to be the first to know that online applications for undergraduate study will now open in May. Graduate scholarship applications will open on August 1st. Ahead of applications opening, we'll publish the exciting list of innovation projects that Scholars will work on year-round for global benefit.

More than an academic scholarship, this is an unparalleled opportunity for a talented person you may know through your organisation, to become a global technology innovator and leader of the future.

- Involvement with interdisciplinary projects in one of the Ellison Institute of Technology's four areas of scientific and technological innovation:
  - Medical Science & Healthcare
  - Food Security & Sustainable Agriculture
  - Clean Energy & Climate Change
  - Government Policy & Economics
- Fully funded undergraduate or graduate study at the University of Oxford
- Mentorship by world leaders, scientists and entrepreneurs
- State of the art facilities in Oxford and Los Angeles

We will get back in touch when the undergraduate applications open. We'll also share important information about who we are looking for, more benefits of our programme and how your organisation can help find the top global talent to apply.

Remember, if someone you know is interested in graduate study, applications will open on August 1st, 9am (UK time) and more information about graduate scholarships will be released soon.

If you would like to find out more about the programme, you can register for a Zoom information session here.

Thanks for reading. If you have any questions about how your organisation can get involved, please contact us at scholars@eit.org.

Best wishes,

Laura Lewis and the Ellison Scholars Team
